The verification process must document your parents' household income and the members of your parents' household. Please answer the questions below to help us determine what documentation is needed to complete your verification.

NOTE: For reporting purposes, "Parent" means your legal (biological or adoptive) parent or stepparent, or a person the state has determined to be your legal parent.

The following people are NOT your parents unless they have legally adopted you:

- Aunts or Uncles
- Older Brothers or Sisters
- Foster Parents
- Grandparents
- Legal Guardians
- Widowed Stepparent

1) Are your legal parents (biological or adoptive) currently married to each other and not separated?

- Yes. Enter parents' marriage date (MM/DD/YY): _____. You must put both of your legal parents on your FAFSA. Please go to Step 5.
- No. Please go to Question 2.

2) Do your legal parents live together? (Answer Yes if they live in the same household, even if they are divorced or separated.)

- Yes. You must put both of your legal parents on your FAFSA.
 - Select marital status "Unmarried and both parents living together" if they are unmarried or divorced.
 - Select marital status "Married/Remarried" if they are separated and live together.
 - Please go to Step 5.
- No. Please go to Question 3.

3) Did you live with one parent more than the other during the 12 months prior to completing your FAFSA?

- Yes. This parent is your primary parent. Please enter your primary parent's name _____ and go to Question 4 to answer questions about your primary parent's marital status.
- No. A primary parent is the one who provided you more financial support over the last 12 months, or in the last year you received parent support. Please enter your primary parent's name _____ and go to Question 4 to answer questions about your primary parent's marital status.

4) Has your primary parent remarried?

- Yes. Enter primary parent's remarriage date (MM/DD/YY): _____. If the date is before the date you completed your FAFSA, you must put both your parent and stepparent on your FAFSA.

If primary parent remarried before you completed your FAFSA, complete Option A or B:

- Option A - Go to the 2021-2022 FAFSA, update parent marital status to Married/Remarried and enter date. Add stepparent social security number, date of birth, first initial, last name, and income. Resubmit your FAFSA.

- Option B - Provide us with the following data so that we may correct your FAFSA on your behalf.

- Stepparent full Social Security Number _____
- Stepparent Date of Birth (MM/DD/YY) _____
- Stepparent First Name _____
- Stepparent Last Name _____

- No, my primary parent is divorced or separated. Enter divorce/separation date (MM/DD/YY):

_____. If the date is before you complete your FAFSA, you only need to include your primary parent on your FAFSA.

- No, my primary parent has never been married. You may put only the primary parent on your FAFSA.

- 5) Please complete the Household Size Confirmation form on page 3, listing your primary parent and their spouse (if any) and your parents' dependents based on the instructions on the form for a Dependent student.

I certify that I understand that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify information reported on my application (or my child's or my spouse's application) with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies. If I purposely give false or misleading information, I may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

In order to determine your eligibility for student aid, please complete the information below, print and sign in ink, and upload the form in your To-Do list in Student Self Service.

Independent Students:

List all people in your household, including yourself and your spouse. Also list children who will receive more than half of their support from you, and other dependents who now live with you and will receive more than half of their support from you, between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2022.

Dependent Students:

List all people in your parent's household, including yourself and your parent(s). List your parents' other children (even if they do not live with your parents) if (a) your parents will provide more than half of their support between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2022, or (b) they would be considered dependent students if they were completing a FAFSA for 2021-22. Include other people if they now live with your parents and your parents provide more than half of the other person's support AND will continue to provide more than half of that person's support through June 30, 2022.
