

Request for Selective Service Reconsideration

Your FAFSA results indicate you are not eligible for federal financial aid because you are not registered with Selective Service. To be eligible for federal aid, a male must register with Selective Service within 30 days of reaching his 18th birthday or by age 26. This application is to request a review of your ineligibility.

No financial aid is available to you until you complete and submit this Request for Selective Service Reconsideration to the Financial Aid Office

Please put your student ID number on all forms submitted to the Financial Aid Office.

Residents of Puerto Rico, Guam, Virgin Islands, and Northern Mariana Islands are U.S. citizens. Citizens of American Samoa are nationals and must register when they are habitual residents in the United States or reside in the U.S. for at least one year. Habitual residence is presumed and registration is required whenever a national or a citizen of the Republic of the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, or Palau, resides in the U.S. for more than one year in any status, except when the individual resides in the U.S. as an employee of the government of his homeland; or as a student who entered the U.S. for the purpose of full-time studies, as long as such person maintains that status.

NOTE: Immigrants who did not enter the United States or maintained their lawful non-immigrant status by continually remaining on a valid visa until after they were 26 years old, were never required to register. Also, immigrants born before 1960, who did not enter the United States or maintained their lawful non-immigrant status by continually remaining on a valid visa until after March 29, 1975, were never required to register.
